Dear Cornerstone Community Church family,

A person was in my office not long ago, and they said something to this effect: “There are not many people who want to take on leadership in our modern day. The cost is too much for most people. Many people simply will not get involved.”

When I thought about that discussion, it resonated with me! But I also went away from that discussion thanking God for the good people we have at Cornerstone Community Church who do get involved and lead with servanthood.

There is a cost to being a Christian. A cost to stick it out and work at something – especially when nothing is happening or going forward. There is a cost in having integrity, purity, honesty, and God’s honor in your life. It is a huge cost to endure with patience and longsuffering, especially in trials and frustration.

After reflecting on this conversation, I remembered having this amazing illustration about Courage I had kept in a file. This writing is from an unknown author. I would like to share it with you for the remainder of this article. It is titled, “God, Give Me Courage.”

“God, give me courage...courage to stand, to speak, to go the distance, pay the price, take the risk, and take the flack! Give me courage to live by truth instead of what’s easy, to place principle above popularity, conviction above convenience, and right above recognition.

God, give me courage to be confident in the face of criticism, brave in the midst of barrage, assured in the onslaught of attack, dedicated at the time of decision, and focused in the moment of fire; give me courage to say “no” when all others are saying “yes”; courage to follow when the majority scatters; courage to keep marching when the rest are meandering; courage to go when the crowd says stay; courage to walk when others just talk; courage to hope when many just cope; courage to contend when others pretend; courage to shout when most just doubt; courage to stay the course, hold the line, finish the race, complete the journey, and never cave in.

God, give me courage to be the maverick, set the pace, carry the torch, be called the fool, be laughed at, scorned, ridiculed, hated, written off, abused, or ignored, but let that courage keep me at my post, lifting high Your truth, Your standard, Your Word, and Your promise! Give me courage to not jump ship, bail out, run away, be intimidated, forsake the call, cave in, compromise, or cow-tow, or run.

God, give me courage to dream big dreams, see large visions, plow new ground, chart new courses, sail new seas, and set new records. Give me courage to put character above compromise, purity above the popular, passion above pleasure, faithfulness above flippancy!

God, give me courage to think Your thoughts, obey Your commands, follow Your path, take the guff, suffer the loss, carry Your cross, and be Your faithful disciple, clear to the end. Amen.”

When I think about the world we live in, the “Culture Wars” we face each day, and the courage it takes to live for Jesus Christ and His Truth, the following two Bible passages come to mind:

Acts 5:29 - “(29) But Peter and the other apostles answered and said:

‘We ought to obey God rather than men.’”

Matthew 5:10-12 – Jesus said these words, “(10) Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (11) Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. (12) Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

May Jesus find us faithful in ministry here at Cornerstone Community Church. And may Jesus give us His COURAGE.

Your friend and overseer of your soul (Titus 1:7),
Pastor Jerry Ernst

A WORD OF ENCOURAGEMENT

Dr. Gary Campbell, Pastor Emeritus

TAKE TIME TO BE HOLY

A favorite hymn urges us to “take time to be holy” (Hymnal #395, the poetry of William Longstaff composed in 1882, set to music by George Stebbins in 1890). The hymn is based on 1 Peter 1:16, “it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy,” quoting Leviticus 11:44. The stanzas of this hymn call us to “speak often with our Lord,” to spend private time with Jesus and to offer Him the control of every thought and every motive.

When the congregation sings this old favorite, and as we heed its guidance, we reflect upon its overall message: It takes TIME to be holy! We acknowledge the reality that there are no saints suddenly! To become and to be holy calls for total devotion to the will of our holy God, a deep desire to live as disciples of Jesus Christ, a lifetime with the spiritual disciplines, joyful obedience to our Lord's commands, ready response to every divine call, utter abandonment to the movement of the Holy Spirit and, above all, to be immersed in the love of God and our neighbor.

At the same time, let us understand that every aspect of becoming and being holy is God's gift! Salvation is all by grace, through faith, on account of Christ! We are forgiven because of grace, we are born anew from above by grace, and we are called to be a holy people through grace! To become and to be holy is not an achievement! Rather, it is a gift: It is all by grace.

One proponent of Christian Holiness was A. W. Tozer (1897-1963), a minister in The Christian and Missionary Alliance. During his 30 years as pastor of the South Side Alliance Church in Chicago and his final years leading the Avenue Road Church in Toronto, Canada, Tozer authored 14 books, including How to be Filled with the Holy Spirit (1952), Keys to the Deeper Life (1957), and The Knowledge of the Holy (1961).

The title of an important compilation of A..W. Tozer's writings and ministry captures the essence of his witness: Preparing for Jesus' Return: Daily Living the Blessed Hope. The following quotation of Tozer from this volume provides a fine expression of our hymn "Take Time to be Holy:"

"Holiness, as taught in the Scriptures, is not based upon knowledge on our part. Rather, it is based upon the resurrected Christ in-dwelling us and changing us into His likeness." Is not this what St. Paul describes his Letter to the Colossians--"Christ in you, the hope of glory" (Colossians 1:27)? And this is what St. Paul prayed for at 1 Thessalonians 5:23-24: "May the God of peace himself sanctify you through and through....The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do this."

Church Family,

We have been overwhelmed with the love and concern shown to us before, during and after my surgery. We don't know how people manage with a church family and God's enduring presence.

Chuck and Janet Boone

Dear Church Family,

Thank you all so much for your prayers, support, and the beautiful prayer quilt that was given to my grandma, Barbara Frank. She was beyond touched and we are so grateful to each of you.

Much love,

Elizabeth Napier

Thank You

Dear Cornerstone Community Church,

I wanted to thank Cornerstone for the lovely carnation given to the mothers on Mother's Day. I am enjoying it very much. Everyone is so welcoming and Dean and I enjoy Pastor Ernst's messages when we visit.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Simmons

Congregational Care Ministry

Our team is busy visiting many people in our church that are in need of extra support and a friendly face. Some are in their own homes with needs that they cannot get out readily or others in nursing homes and assisted living facilities. We send monthly cards and other cards for birthdays, illnesses, new babies, and thinking of you. We also make calls if a visit cannot be made. We have one person calling and singing to shut-ins. Communion is also given to the shut-ins by our several retired pastors in the congregation.

If you have information about someone that might do well with a visit, or an impromptu card let me know.

At this time, we do not sit with folks on a regular basis for caregivers to have a break, however if you are interested in that type of ministry, please let me know and we can talk about what that might look like.

"Healing Broken Hearts" is still open to calls for help in the grieving process. Please check with Joyce Thomas, Rachel Blevins or Cindy Harvel for one-on-one support.

Yours in Christ Jesus,

Joyce Thomas

FACA

Fredericktown Area Church Association is keeping busy. Hopefully, you attended National Day of Prayer at the Presbyterian Church. Our next event will be a 5th Sunday Sing at 6 p.m. on June 30th at the Church of God on State Route 13. If you are interested in participating please send an email to Richard Prater at praterjr43@yahoo.com. We would love to see you there. In August FACA will be at National Night Out. We will also be praying for the school in August and having a Community Church Service at the football field on Sept. 15th. Mark your calendar now.

PEACEMEALS

Thank you to the many volunteers who make our hot meal ministry a success. We utilize over 184 volunteer man hours each month. It has been a blessing to have our congregation and community volunteers involved in this ministry. On a regular basis we have 4-H Clubs, community church groups, NHS students, friends and neighbors to serve with us on Wednesday nights. It's a beautiful sight to see grandparents serving with grandchildren and young families serving together.

In 2023 we served 22,763 hot meals and could not have done this without our faithful volunteers.

Thanks to all for making this possible!
