October/November 2024

Dear Cornerstone Community Church family,

We are in full-swing this fall as a Church family and ministries are going forward at the start of this school year. I appreciate all the people in our church who give of their time, talent, and treasure to the Lord's work! May Jesus get the praise for Who He is and what He is doing in the lives of His people.

I had a thought the other day about my wife's favorite story in the Bible, the story of Ruth. When I think about The Book of Ruth it has so much to do with difficulties, uncertainties, pain, loss, and faith in God. Ruth was the daughter-in-law of Naomi. Naomi was married to a man named, Elimelech. They had two sons, Mahlon and Kilion. These two sons married Moabite women after their parents left Israel – and resettled in the country of Moab due to a famine (Ruth 1:1).

Shortly after moving to Moab, Naomi's husband died. Her sons had already married foreign women (Orpah and Ruth). After ten years of living in Moab, Naomi's sons both died. Naomi needed to depart and go back to Bethlehem in Israel. She pleaded with her daughters-in-law to leave her and find new husbands in Moab. Ruth refused to leave Naomi and claimed Naomi as her forever friend and mother-in-law, even after the death of her husband, Naomi's son.

The Book of Ruth is a four-chapter love story. The story is about commitment, friendship, love, and faith during challenging times. It is about going beyond what is required – by doing what is right. Ultimately, the story is about Jesus Christ being in history through difficult circumstances and God working out His overall plan for a Savior, "The Kinsman-Redeemer" (Ruth 4:8-10; 13-22).

As I summarize this story of Ruth and Naomi, I will narrow this down into “seasons.” The characters in this story went through life together and endured rough and beautiful seasons, alike.

They went through...

... a season of famine.

...a season of change.

...a season of loss.

...a season of choice.

...a season of uncertainty.

...a season of dependance.

...a season of total faith.

...a season of waiting.

...a season of being noticed.

...a season of God’s favor.

...a season of fulfillment.

...a season of completion.

...a season Beyond (The line of David, which produced our Savior, Jesus Christ).

Look for the above truths in this four-chapter book. It may very well help you in the “season” of your life you are in right now. Remember this, Church, God is in every season to produce something much larger than we can see with our limited knowledge (Psalm 32:7-8; Romans 8:28-29; Ecclesiastes 3:1-8).

In Christian love and service,
Pastor Jerry Ernst

RELAX AND LEARN IN OUR LIBRARY

Have you discovered the Church Library at Cornerstone Community Church?

Come with me as we leave the main Sanctuary! We make our way through the Welcome Area and walk along the corridor past the elevator on our left and restrooms on our right. See the next room on the right side? There it is, opposite the classroom where my FA-HO-CHA group meets on Sunday mornings. Let's step into the Church Library.

Look around. It's an attractive room with shelves of books on the walls and an exit door to the outside. Be seated on a comfortable chair. OR...wait a moment: Before you sit down, get a cup of coffee at the Keurig coffee-maker there, on the table!

Better yet...check out the variety of books and resources offered for your enrichment by our very own Church Library. You'll find volumes on what you believe as a Christian, helps to Christian living, commentaries on the Bible, devotional meditations, and "how-to" guides on Bible Study, faith sharing, putting Christ first in your home, personal relationships, and many other topics.

Now that I've shown you our Church Library, you'll want to spend time in the room and also borrow Christian resources. And let me introduce our Church Librarian: Janet Boone organizes the library for our congregation, keeps it up-to-date, and is eager to assist you in locating the resource you need. There is a display table in the hallway just outside the library door that Janet arranges from time to time, so all of us can take note of a new resource and be reminded that our Church has a Library!

Recently I presented Janet Boone with an unusual volume for the library. It is The Cyclopedia of Methodism edited by Rev. Matthew Simpson of Cadiz, Ohio. Simpson was elected a Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1852, and this huge volume presents the chief facts of Methodist History up to its copyright year of 1876. This book offers an alphabetical arrangement of events marking the growth of Methodism in England and America.

Recently I presented Janet Boone with an unusual volume for the library. It is The Cyclopedia of Methodism edited by Rev. Matthew Simpson of Cadiz, Ohio. Simpson was elected a Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1852, and this huge volume presents the chief facts of Methodist History up to its copyright year of 1876. This book offers an alphabetical arrangement of events marking the growth of Methodism in England and America.

Whether you are doing in-depth research or just casual scanning, you can discover the main doctrines of “Methodism” and our agreement with or divergence from other denominations. Here are sketches of our seminaries, colleges, and universities. One can trace the branches of Methodism, such as the Methodist Episcopal (M.E.) Church, the M.E. South, and the African M.E. Church. There are articles on Bible words such as “altar,” “amen,” and “singing;” and on such biblical teachings as “assurance,” “attributes of God,” “baptism” and “sanctification.” Here we can learn about the Wesley family and especially John and Charles Wesley and the Evangelical Revival of the 18th century. In addition, this book is chock-full of illustrations and photographs, not only of people but also places and church buildings.

This marvellous resource comes to us from the recently-discontinued Salem United Methodist Church. It was my privilege to be Salem's Pastor a few years ago, and I love their congregation of faithful members. Two ladies of the former Salem Church, Barbara Cline and Bonnie Simmons, brought The Cyclopedia of Methodism to me. After I familiarized myself with this great work, the three of us agreed to offer it as a gift to the Cornerstone Community Church Library. This one-of-a-kind resource is now under the care of Janet Boone, and—along with all the other attractions in our library—is available to you.

“Remember, Peacemeals start back up Wednesday, Oct. 2nd!”

Choir

Our choir will be singing at the First Baptist Church, Sunday night, October 30th at 7:00 p.m. This event will be a community praise and worship service. They are planning to have vocalists and instrumentalists as well as traditional and contemporary music. We would love to have you join us in a night of worship and be there to support us as well.

Congregational Care Ministry

As a group being Jesus hands and feet with His compassion and support we visit, share stories, sing, pray, bring communion by a pastor, send cards for birthdays, condolences, and "just because" a person needs to hear from our church that we care.

We would like to add to the list of ones we care for, so if you or someone you know is mostly housebound, or in a long term care facility, please let me know.

We would truly love to be of support to you.

Because of the love of Jesus,

Joyce Thomas

JOY Circle.....Jesus Others and You

Future Joy Circle meetings this year. We meet the second Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in the Great Room unless otherwise noted.

October 8th

Is there a connection with goats and David and Goliath? Come check it out at JOY Circle October 8th at 1:30 in the Great Room. All ladies are welcome!

November 12th

Our program speaker will be Marcy Rinehart. She is the station manager of WNZR radio station 90.0 FM in Mt. Vernon. She will tell us about the growth of the radio station and it's goal as a Christian station.

December 10th We will be meeting in the Lab.

We will make Sunshine Plates for approximately 25 members and attendees who can no longer worship[with us on a regular basis. Circle members please bring individually wrapped cookies, candies, snack crackers, pudding cups or small fruit etc. So we may assemble the gifts. Lori Wilkes, our new facility coordinator, will also speak briefly that day.

Prayer by Appointment

According to James 5:16 we are to confess our sins and pray for one another. “The prayer of a righteous man had great power as it is working.” There is a small group of intercessors willing to meet with you and pray for your needs, confidentially.

Contact Jill Rock (740) 501-0563

Prayer Meeting

We meet on the 3rd Sunday each month at 6 p.m. in the Sanctuary. We pray for our church, our community, our country, and our nation. Corporate prayer had the ability to connect believers with a unity of purpose centered around God’s will. Matthew 18: 19-20 (The Passion) “If two of you agree to ask God for something in a symphony of prayer, my heavenly Father will do it for you. For wherever two or three come together to honor my name, I am right there with you.”

Prayers and Squares

Prayers and Squares will begin on WEDNESDAY, Oct. 2 from 9 - 11. If you can tie a knot, come join us for the Fellowship and Prayer. Remember if you know of someone in need of a prayer quilt, check with the office. In November we will meet on Wednesday, Nov. 6.

Quirky Quilt Ladies

This group is for those that enjoy quilting or wish to learn. It meets on the 2nd Wednesday of each month from 10 - 4 at the Presbyterian Church. If you need more information, please check with Louise Dudgeon or Kathy Toms.

Adult Sunday Small Groups

Cornerstone Community Church

Beginning September 22, ASAP is studying SUPERNATURAL by Carolyn Moore. Mrs. Moore is a recognized speaker in the Global Methodist Church and presents ways we can make the Holy Spirit more active in our daily lives. We meet in the first room outside the Welcome Area in Room 201 and enjoy studying together and praying for each other. We also love to laugh and have a great time! Contact Robin McClay (740) 358-6723 with questions.

Our class is doing the book "Watchman Prayer, "How to Stand Guard and Protect Your Family, Home & Community, by Dutch Sheets. We are learning about the authority we have In Christ, how to be more sensitive to the leading of Holy Spirit, and how to pray and declare Scripture. We discuss current events and how to pray for America, Israel, and other nations. Please join us in the music suite downstairs for But First, Pray! If you would like to know more, contact Jill Rock at (740) 501-0563.

Be The Light meets in the conference room at the end of the small group hallway in Room 204. We are a small group and welcome new attenders. Currently we are studying the book of First Samuel. If you have any questions, please see Matt or Jessica Moore.

FA HO CHA is short for Faith, Hope and Charity. This Small Group meets in Room 203 directly across from the library on the main floor. This quarter, September-November, our study is taken from the book of Romans with focus on God's grace, God's heart and Mind as Paul described to the church in Rome. Come join us as we delve into the richness of these scriptures to discover God's heart for us as disciples of Jesus. For more information contact Rachel Blevins, 740-504-7759.

Are you looking for hope in a world that is drifting away from God's plan? Join the Q&A class as we study the words of Daniel beginning September 29th. This prophet thrives in a dark world. How does he do it? He knows the power of God, and is committed to being different because he will not turn from God's promises. When we feel like outsiders in our own world, we can find comfort and direction with Daniel's experiences in exile. Our small group loves to ask the hard questions, and we dig into the Bible to find the answers. We love to read scripture and reflect on how we can apply God's word to every part of our lives. We are downstairs across from the elevator. Call or text Ryan or Meg Bender with questions (740.507.2966). We hope to see you in small group!

Join other Young Adults ages 18-30 as we study through the Bible and support each other. Currently we are studying Unbelievable by Harris III. We meet downstairs in the hallway connecting the Great Room and Pre School. Contact Andy or Lynnea Clevenger (740)398-7198 if you would like more information.

FIG "Friends in God" Sunday group is a discussion based class connecting scripture to our daily lives. We meet in Room 202. Currently we are studying the life of Jesus through the Gospel of John. We would love to have you join us as we get to know our Savior better. If you have any questions, please contact Mary Elder at (740) 398-4144.

Mental Health Information

The first week of October is Mental Illness Awareness Week. On Tuesday, October 4th there is a National Day of Prayer for Mental Illness Recovery and Understanding. Prayer is important all the time, but I encourage you to join others, on Oct. 4th, all across our country in praying for those who live with Mental Illness and for all of us to educate ourselves so we can better love and support those people with Mental Health diagnoses.

Also, Thursday, October 6th is National Depression Screening Day. The organization, Mental Health America has a depression screening on their website along with screenings for other mental health diagnoses. These screenings are free, scientifically validated and anonymous. They can be used to start a conversation with your primary care provider. If a person gets screened, the more likely he/she will get treatment. The screening page address is:
screening.mhanational.org/screening-tools/

NAMI (The National Alliance on Mental Health) will have special blog topics and personal stories each day during Mental Illness Awareness Week:

Healing Broken Hearts

As I write this it has been just 2 days since JoAnn Baugher left us to be sheltered in the arms of her Savior Jesus. We at Cornerstone, will miss her effervescent smile and laugh, her dedication to the church in many ways, her sweet Alto voice...and who can forget her wonderful pies!

She was our dear saint here with us, now she is with all God's singers in heaven, and present at His table there. We offer love and condolences to her family, and all her friends who will miss her.

Broken hearts certainly come from the loss of loved ones, but also from other sadness and difficulties life throws at us.

You can be gently cared for and listened to when it is needed. Life can be so profoundly difficult at times. Many times just telling your story to someone who will just listen and not really try to "fix it" can begin to give you direction and a renewed sense of seeing life in a new light.

We are not professional counselors, yet have experience in helping others in their pain, so we can be there as you share your pain and perhaps direct you to a professional if need be.

Yours in Christ,

Cindy Harvel, Rachel Blevins, Joyce Thomas

Buddy Break Information

We will be hosting Buddy Break on Saturday, October 8th. Our theme will be Pets. For our pet theme we will be looking for someone who might be able to do some facepainting. Our November event will be on Saturday, November 19th. We will be having some football fun. We'll be looking for people who might have some football or cheerleading equipment/clothes that the VIP's could try on. VIP's attend from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. We would love to have you come visit us and see what we do. Please let Susan Link or Mary Elder know if you would like to visit or if you could help us with facepainting or costumes. Thanks in advance for your support!

Children's Bell Choir!

Children in 1st through 5th grade are welcome to participate in Bell Choir for both services on Sunday, November 24th

Practice – Sunday November 17th during LABB time.

First service – children meet in the lobby at 9:30 to be ready to lead in worship with bells for the first service (if they already are not attending the first service).

Second service – Children will meet in the lobby at the beginning of the 11:15 worship service.

Children and Youth Sunday Small Groups
Cornerstone Community Church

Nursery: Our youngest church-goers receive loving care during the small group hour in our church nursery. All volunteers are background checked and love our littlest ones. Bible stories are read and children enjoy some time with praise and worship movement and singing. Contact our nursery coordinator, Emily Carter, with any questions. (740) 398-6872.

The Lab: Elementary-aged children have a great time in The Lab. The Lab is located at the end of the main hallway on the main floor of the church. Students who visit The Lab enjoy praise and worship and Bible stories where characters literally come out of the Bible. Puppets and Professor Mobius enhance the teaching. Students have deeper discussions around the lessons after being divided into similar age discussion groups. Children's Ministry Leaders Kurt and Kalvari Kershner (740) 501- 7873 welcome any interest in this ministry.

Middle School Youth: Students in sixth, seventh, and eighth grade meet in the middle school room downstairs. We are created to pursue an authentic relationship with Our Creator; that we belong to Jesus Christ; and that we exist every day to demonstrate God's love to a broken world. Join us as we accomplish this through Bible study, fellowship, and games. Come as you are! Middle School Youth are taught by a rotation of volunteers. Contact Brian or Julie Zimmerman, youth leaders, (330) 417-9475. to learn more.

High School Youth: Students in ninth-twelfth grades meet in the high school youth room located downstairs next to the Great Room. Youth are invited to join Small Groups on Sunday mornings. WE are created to pursue an authentic relationship with Our Creator, that we belong to Jesus Christ; and that we exist every day to demonstrate God's love to a broken world. Join us as we accomplish this through Bible study, fellowship, and games. Come as you are! Contact Brian or Julie Zimmerman, youth leaders, (330)417-9475 to learn more.

Welcome Back

The 2024-2025 school year has begun and given the staff more reasons to praise the Lord!! We have had 45 children start the 5 day programs and 44 children in the 3 year old programs! Our teaching team has remained the same as the last few years and the team is working together to make this the best year of teaching WE (this team of teachers) have ever had! We started the year with a number of littles who were nervous and screaming that they didn't want to come to school but now they are running in the doors with smiles and high fives! Routines are forming, rules have been learned, fire drills and tornado drills have been done, we have preschoolers talking to Jesus and learning about prayer, we are exploring God's word in many exciting ways and the children are learning to let their creativity flow!

The 5 day programs have enjoyed a walk around town to learn more about the signs in our community while learning that every sign is important and tells people how to stay safe. The 2 day program has been working on routines, learning how to use words to share and communicate their needs and wants, they have gone on a treasure hunt to find that God's word & Jesus are the best treasures we could ever find! They have explored creation and Adam and Eve so far this year.

Due to the number of families who wanted to send their children who turned 3 after August 1st, we started a new program this year- Young 3s and they meet on Friday mornings! This program will teach social emotional skills, allow kids to get a feel for what school is like while also learning to say "see you later" to Mom and Dad.

Our teachers have had to adjust their mindsets with this group a tad but we have worked diligently to create a curriculum that will be age appropriate and help these littles to be ready for the 2 day program next year.
