February/March - 2025

Dear Cornerstone Community Church family,

We have much to be grateful for as we start a new year at Cornerstone Community Church in 2025. God has been so faithful to us in 2024, and we trust Him each day in this New Year we find ourselves in. I wanted to express a heartfelt “Thank you” as my family and I have just returned from Paraguay on an extended vacation and the wedding of our oldest son, Gabe. Abbey and I are so thankful for your generosity in helping us get to this event and your prayers for our trip in January 2025. This was by far the longest trip and time away Abbey, and I have ever had in twenty-nine ½ years of marriage – and we thank you for this gift of renewal.

Jesus said in Matthew 13:44 - “(44) The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field.”

The question Jesus is posing is, “What value do we place on the Kingdom of heaven?”

A treasure found is something we did not earn or expect to find. When found, a treasure brings overwhelming joy to our hearts and lives. The question by Jesus is the same for us today: “What worth is the Kingdom of God and Jesus Christ in our lives?”

Some people view Jesus’ Kingdom as a great treasure and hold it with utmost value. Others see Jesus’ Kingdom as a liability and not an asset (until life caves in on them). But the real test of how much we value God’s Kingdom through Jesus’ Church is our interest in it and service to it.

Like a hidden treasure, are we seeking God’s Kingdom in our lives today?

- Do we seek out God’s Kingdom in our lives?
- Are we excited when we find Jesus and His Truth?
- Do we invest in it to obtain it – and “buy the field” for our Kingdom investment?
- Do we guard the field of God’s Kingdom treasure once we have found it?
- Do we “go and sell” all we have – give up the immediate – to gain His Kingdom?

John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, said these words, “I value all things only by the price they shall gain in eternity.”

This is a wonderful description of Kingdom priorities and the placement of them. By what value will _____ (you fill in the blank) this activity/endeavor gain in all eternity?

When we fill our lives up with what is righteous and eternal, we place God’s interests ahead of our own - by the price they will gain in eternity!

We at Cornerstone Community Church are people seeking after God’s Kingdom and purpose for our lives. May this new year in 2025 be a time of growing in seeking this wonderful Treasure of Jesus Christ. May God bless the many activities, Worship services, ministries, prayer, and opportunities in our “field.” May Jesus be sought as the most valuable Treasure ever!

In Christian love and service,
Pastor Jerry Ernst

A WORD OF ENCOURAGEMENT

Dr. Gary Campbell, Pastor Emeritus

OUR MARCHING ORDERS

For the six years before I took the “Retired” relationship in 1999, I was the appointed Superintendent of the Portsmouth District of The United Methodist Church. I very much enjoyed the congregation at Clarksburg, Ohio. Recently I came across a Facebook message posted by the current pastor at Clarksburg. The Rev. David Yinger wrote:

Don't stop preaching the gospel no matter how discouraged you get, or how unfruitful it may seem. People are watching and listening. They may not show it, but you are affecting them in more ways than you know.

This Pastor's “word of encouragement” reminded me of the “marching orders” Jesus left with His disciples! We call it the “Great Commission:”

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. (Matthew 28:19-20)

Today there are a number of significant challenges to public morality: Gender identity, marriage, parent-child relationships, freedom of speech, freedom of religion and conscience, anti-Semitism, and the sanctity of human life. The Bible speaks to these issues, but our culture seems increasingly to reject Biblical values. This being the case, how do we fulfill the Great Commission?

In their pagan world, the first disciples practiced and proclaimed their faith so as to “make disciples” and “teaching them” the Way of Christ. You and I can follow their example, (1) first by studying the Scriptures to know and live out the standards of Biblical morality; then (2) by praying for family, for our congregation and for governmental leaders at all levels; (3) by serving whenever and wherever possible; (4) by witnessing to our faith and convictions as God gives opportunity; and finally (5) by inviting persons in our circles of influence to come to Christ as Savior and Lord.

Can we make an impact for God's Kingdom in our own family? perhaps in our own neighborhood, and even beyond? By word and deed, let us serve “the gospel no matter how discouraged [we] get, or how unfruitful it may seem. People are watching and listening, They may not show it, but [we] are affecting them in more ways than [we] know!”

I want to obey my “marching orders!” And these “marching orders” call for my obedience in the current, up-to-date language of the mission-statement of our Cornerstone Community Church in Fredericktown::SHARING HOPE IN CHRIST, ALL OVER TOWN, ACROSS GENERATIONS, AROUND THE WORLD!

Menu of Ministries

God has uniquely gifted each of us with talents, passions, and resources, and He calls us to use these gifts in service to others. Volunteering in ministry is not just about filling a role—it's about answering God's call to make a difference in the lives of others and in our own hearts. When we serve, we grow in faith, build community, and reflect the love of Christ to the world. Whether it's helping in children's ministry, assisting with outreach, or supporting the worship team, every act of service matters. PeaceMeals

We continue to serve 425-460 meals each week, which is amazing and such a blessing to reach out to our community and church members in this way.

Moms, dads, grandpas, grandmas, school teachers, nurses, secretaries, business owners, retirees, those going through hard times in their own lives are the wonderful, busy, selfless volunteers that make this ministry possible.

God works through many hearts and hands each week prepping food, praying, carrying groceries and meals to cars, delivering groceries and meals throughout our village and even to shut-ins several miles away.

We are so grateful for those of you who can't serve in person but give monetary support or work behind the scenes, picking up groceries and organizing the pantry, washing the dishes, taking the recycling, and keeping the laundry and kitchen so clean.

If you've never signed up at Kroger to have your points go to support a ministry, we encourage you to choose Cornerstone Community Church PeaceMeals!

Hebrews 13:16 ESV

Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Healing Broken Hearts

We are sending out cards and occasional letters for grief support to ones who have lost a loved one in the recent past. Bereavement challenges include wondering how to maneuver through the days and weeks without a loved one; trying to put "new normals" in place when it is not what you want to do; traversing through the tough financial questions; and finding some purpose for life again.

If you would like to talk one on one with someone with experience in helping to traverse the dark forest of being bereaved, you can call Joyce Thomas, Cindy Harvel, or Rachel Blevins.

The Congregational Care Ministry is here to continue to be Jesus' hands, feet and voice for Cornerstone Community Church. If you feel God's leading to be a part of this ministry, please call me and we can find where God might be leading you to help others. Our next meeting will be Thursday February 6 at 4:00 pm in the conference room.

Rev. Gary shared this in a message recently and I feel it is worth contemplation for your life in Christ. "God breathes out life...You must breathe it in to live."

I am humbly God's servant because He is my Lord and Savior,
Joyce Thomas

Congregational Care Ministry

Our team continues to send cards, make calls, do visits, provide communion, sing to, and be a positive support for the many we care for. If you know of someone who is in a facility or lives alone let me know and we can see if that person would like our presence.

As the new year is starting, the ministry is expanding to do more for our church family. Our team is doing a wonderful job of being the feet, hands and heart of Jesus. Yet there is more we can do beyond what we do now. If you are curious and want to know more or are interested in any way, call me to share your gifting or God's nudging you have felt.

I have asked Pastor Mark Wildermuth and Jill Cryder to assist me with the leadership for them to focus on their giftings and talents. Pastor Mark for the Communion being taken to our list of congregants as well visiting folks in the hospital as needed in communication with Pastor Jerry. If you or someone you know goes to the hospital please call the office so that the information can be given to the proper person quickly. KCH no longer informs the patient's church/pastor of an admission. Mark also has some ideas of his own he will be following up on.

Jill is a nurse with lots of experience and will be helping me with some new topics of education for the entire congregation related to health care and other quality of life topics during this year. Some we will potentially be presenting will be information on good nutrition; Ohio Advanced Directives; ieducation on Alzheimer's and other dementia care; how to know nursing homes are giving quality of care and quality of life for their residents .. this will include the "Nursing Home Resident Rights" while living in a nursing home. This Resident Rights list is long and sweeping in scope, however we all need to know what they are to make sure every resident's rights are being adhered to and so we can be an advocate for the best as can be.

We know that the Sunday Small Groups have a system in which when their attendees need food assistance after surgery, illness, or other needs it is put in place. However anyone not in a Sunday Small Group may not get the help we might be able to give. So if you do not attend a small group, we are willing to get you some assistance if you call the office and the information will then be given to this ministry to follow up on. If you are interested in being part of Congregational Care Ministry and would like to be a contact person please let me know and we can discuss it.
